NAME

Helen’s assistant for more than 50 years. She earned the nickname “The Miracle Worker” for the achievements she made with Helen Keller. When Anne first arrived at Helen’s home, she began to teach Helen the words for items. Anne would place the item in Helen’s hand. Then she would press the letters of the words into Helen’s other hand.

Connecticut Humane Society is not a government agency. It’s not part of a national group. It’s a community mission. It’s an animal-lover’s cause. And, by the way, here’s some good news you might not have heard. It took 60 years. But spaying and neutering can now declare victory. The animal population is under control in Connecticut.
