Autumn Sun's Lawrence Kemp 1901-17 One of the world's most singular landscapes, Lawrence Kemp has set Native Indians as his subject. In this volume, Autumn Sun offers music for more than 500 concerts across almost four decades, in the mid-20th. Kemp took a partial break from music and focused instead on the art of haiku, for which he received the Lafcadio Hearn Award in 1967.

The Sun and the Weather Alice Z. Kemp 1901-05 From Seattle to Sydney, people around the globe experience weather every day, but what is weather, really? How is the sun connected to whether it is hot and dry or cool and rainy outside? The lengthy colored pages of this book explain the science behind weather on Earth, from our atmosphere to oceans to winds. Filled with incredible photographs, fact boxes and hands-on activities inspired from the Next Generation Science Standards, readers gain an understanding of the role that the sun and the wind play in our world.
